ABOUT THE ARTIST : CLARE GODLESKI

Clare Godleski has been teaching art to adults, children and seniors for 20+ years. Her innovative style of teaching in combination with a warm and supportive atmosphere for learning has taught many people to love the art of watercolor. Creativity and imaginative thinking are her goals. Clare is continually educating herself because she believes you can never know all there is to know about watercolor. She brings that yearning for learning to all of her classes.

Watercolor Painting Class Open House
Palmer Ranch, Sarasota, Florida
Monday, November 27, 2017

RSVP necessary to attend

Meet Clare Godleski, Artist and Teacher, to see her work and talk about watercolor classes being offered at Hobby Lobby in Sarasota, Florida. Clare has been teaching art and watercolor to adults for 25+ years in NJ and now she brings her art classes to Sarasota! Classes will start on January 15 and run through April 23. Classes are held every Monday from 10am-1pm. Everyone is welcome to come and learn - whether a beginner or a seasoned painter, you will find your place here. Emphasis will be placed on learning new techniques while having fun. Each student will paint original paintings, not copies of the teacher's paintings! If you want to learn in a way you have never been taught before, come and join our classes.

Class size limited.

Registration is open now.

Contact Clare at paintwithclare@gmail.com or call her at 609-203-9761 for more info on the open house and classes.
